

Bild: © Sabine Burger

Kaspar Zehnder

Conductor

Flautist

Artistic Director

Kaspar Zehnder comes from the foothills of the Bernese Alps in Switzerland. He has been principal conductor of the Hradec Králové Philharmonic (CZ) since 2018 after being in the same position at the Biel Solothurn Symphony Orchestra (CH) between 2012 and 2022 and of the PKF Prague Philharmonia from 2005 to 2008.

After schools until the Matura in direction of classical languages, he studied flute and conducting in Bern, Paris, Siena and at the European Mozart Academy. From 1999-2020 he was the Artistic Director of the Murten Classics Festival and from 2004 to 2012 Musical Director at the Zentrum Paul Klee.

As a flautist, he regularly goes on chamber music tours with Magdalena Kožená, Sir Simon Rattle and other friends.

Kaspar Zehnder conducts leading orchestras throughout Europe. His repertoire includes countless symphonic and vocal works from the great oratorios of J.S. Bach to the ensemble music of our time and includes almost the entire symphonic output of the Classical and Romantic periods, with an emphasis on all that is unknown, new and newly discovered.

Changes to the text may only be published with the consent of Kaspar Zehnder.

© Kaspar Zehnder 2023

Contact:

Angela Kreis-Muzzolini, Persönliche Assistentin von Kaspar Zehnder

administration@kasparzehnder.com, T +41 31 352 88 18, www.kasparzehnder.com